SPORTING NEWS LETTER

By C. H. ZUBER.

Cincinnati, June 30.—Manager Griffith, of the Reds, has registered a promise with a few personal friends, if realized, will completely revolutionize the feelings of Cincinnati followers of base ball within a very short time. Griffith's promise is that on the coming trip of the Reds, during which they will play in Boston, Brooklyn, New York and Philadelphia, the team will win so many games that the bad streak which it has experienced recently will be entirely forgotten, and the fans will again be pulling for the Queen City athletes to wind up their season in the first division. "Our slump is over; the boys again are getting back to the form that was expected of them early in the season, and from now on victories will predominate," declared the Reds' leader. "The material is here for a first division finish, and we're going to see to it that opportunities are not wasted. The season is not yet half over and in what remains of it we can make a stiff fight and finish up among the elect. Our pitchers are showing the form that was expected of them; our hitting is becoming more timely, and in other respects the team finally is waking up. Nothing is going to stop us from now on." Let's hope he's right.

There has been a well-defined suspicion going the rounds ever since the season opened that Manager Griffith broke into a quince orchard and robbed the most conspicuous tree when he secured George McQuillan from the Phillies. The several recent appearances of the big fellow, however, indicate that he isn't the failure that it was thought he was. His last appearance in Pittsburgh on Monday of this week was marked by a line of classy work that was entirely like that delivered by the McQuillan of old. He had all the speed and control that made him such a whale in seasons ago. And the beauty of it is that he says that he's going to be even better. McQuillan really never was "gone," so it is not a question of his being able to "come back." Manager Griffith will work the big fellow regularly from now on, and hopes to show him in some of the Sunday games for which the Reds are scheduled when they come back from the East, including those of July 23 with St. Louis; July 30 with Brooklyn; August 6 with Philadelphia, and August 13 with Pittsburgh.

That a lead of ten or twelve games isn't a killing handicap is shown by the performance of the Philadelphia Athletics recently. Less than six weeks after the season had opened the Detroit were so far ahead of the world's champions that the wise ones said that the Mackists had potted out—that they were hopelessly lost so far as honors this season were concerned. But a glance at the percentage table of the American League today shows that the dope was all wrong, and that the good material on the Athletic team was certain to assert itself in due season and assume the rank to which its ability was entitled. Now it is an even money proposition that the Mackmen will win the pennant in the American League again, and there is every reason to believe that they will grow better as the season progresses; and if that is true of the Athletics, why should it not apply to the Reds? Griffith's men haven't been doing any worse than did the world's champions earlier in the season. The material is there for a spurt a la the Athletics. And stranger things have happened.

The news wafted from Richmond, Va., some days ago that John L. Sullivan, the last and greatest of the old-time ring gladiators, had made his last public appearance in the spangles of his profession, brings back a host of memories of the old days of pugilism, when brut strength more than cleverness ruled the game, and when the men who went into the ring were willing to settle the question of supremacy with bare knuckles, if necessary. It was a sad day for a majority of the fight fans of America when Sullivan was licked by Corbett, and while there have been several champions of the heavyweight class since that time, not one of them, from Corbett, through Fitzsimmons and Jeffries, down to Jack Johnson, ever held the place in the public's affection that was enjoyed by "Old John L." He was a grand old fighter and is still an idol with the lovers of the art pugilistic.

Every year there's a new "turf wonder" sprung on the betting public; and every year the followers of the ponies feel that there's going to be something bigger and better "pulled off" with this nag than ever before. This year it's a fifty little two-year-old by the name of "The Manager," that is getting the support of the betting public around these diggings. In the several starts which The Manager has made at Latonia during the present meeting, he has run true to form, and has shown so much superiority over his competitors that there is reason to believe that he really is the classiest youngster of the present season. With several of the larger Eastern tracks getting ready to open, despite the adverse laws, it is reasonable to suppose The Manager will have the opportunity of meeting the best horses of his age among the big Eastern stables. And those who have seen him perform declare that he'll have no trouble holding his own with any horse of his age in America.

Clark to Take Stump for James.

Speaker Champ Clark will stump Kentucky this fall. He reached the determination Sunday morning when he learned that Senator Thomas H. Pavner had withdrawn from the contest for the United States Senatorship, and that Representative Ollie James would receive the nomination at the Democratic primary July 1. The big First Kentucky District Congressman has been one of the most loyal Clark men in the House. Before it was assured that Clark would be elected Speaker, James was one of the most active men in his behalf. All through James' campaign for the Senatorship Speaker Clark has been greatly interested and the Missourian is going to lend every assistance possible for the election of a Democratic Legislature which will ratify the choice of the Democratic primary.

Incidentally, the Clark Presidential boom will be surging on the Democrats of the State. Clark is a native of Kentucky, and has such a strong hold on the Democrats of the State that it is considered likely that Kentucky will send a Clark delegation to the next Democratic National Convention. Representative Sherley of the Fifth District is said to be for the nomination of Governor Harmon, of Ohio, and report has it that under his leadership Clark is not to get the delegates without a contest.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trade with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.
